

WISCONSIN LEASH LAW: The State of Wisconsin holds dog owners and keepers liable for all damages caused by dogs that run at large.

Dogs may not run at large or be untagged (not licensed); dogs found to be running at large or untagged will be impounded. Owners of such dogs will be fined up to $100 for the first offense, and up to $200 for subsequent offenses.

A dog is considered to be running at large if it is off the premises of its owner and not under the control of the owner or some other person. (A dog that is actively engaged in a legal hunting activity, including training, is not considered to be running at large if monitored or supervised by a person and on land open to hunting or on which the person has obtained permission to hunt or train a dog.)

A dog running at large or an untagged dog is subject to impoundment. An officer shall attempt to capture and restrain any dog running at large and any untagged dog.

On September 1st, the Town of Plover will provide a list of all known unlicensed (untagged) dogs to the Portage County Humane Society.
